There was pomp and glamour when thousands of graduands were conferred with various degrees and diplomas during the 58 University of Nairobi graduation ceremony held on December,22,2017.

More than 6000 students from the College of Humanities and Social Sciences(CHSS) and the College of Health Sciences(CHS) successfully earned their credentials during the 2017/2018 academic year.

Speaking during the event UoN Chancelor, Dr Vijoo Ratanssi said she was assured the graduands had acquired high quality education and skills which ought to be leveraged for societal benefits.

Vice Chancellor Prof. Peter Mbithi said that he was confident the graduands had the right skills and mindset to succeed in the society. " The education qualifications and the quality of certificates you are about to obtain today are not only a source of pride but also indicators of your readiness to go! Ready to work and ready to serve."

Valedictorian, Ms. Elizabeth Itotia, from the School of Pharmacy said "As we go out there, let us be true to who we are. Let us be the good ambassadors that this university has molded us into."

Congratulations to the class of 2017.
