Land Use Law (GPR 311) [8] third year Students, under the instruction of Dr. Robert Kibugi, recently developed short documentary films, through which they identified a legal land use problem, proceeded to investigate, and communicate the outcome through a 10-12 minute long documentary. The 6 short documentary films were judged by a panel of 4 experts as part of the class coursework. The panel of judges, while providing constructive criticism, commended the students the high degree of effort and diligence evident in the output.
